Privacy Policy

Effective Date: January 1, 2026

Schring Consulting LLC (“we,” “us,” or “our”) operates ClassLens (the “Service”). This Privacy Policy explains what information we collect, how we use it, and the choices you have. We do not share or sell your personal information — including your name, email address, or phone number — to any third-party partners, affiliates, or associated companies for their own marketing, advertising, or commercial purposes. By using the Service, you agree to the collection and use of information in accordance with this policy.

1. Information We Collect

We may collect the following types of information when you use the Service:

- Account information, such as your name, email address, and phone number, when you register for an account.
- Profile information you choose to provide, such as a username, avatar, or preferences.
- Usage data, such as pages visited, features used, and time spent on the Service.
- Device and technical data, such as IP address, browser type, operating system, and device identifiers.
- Communications, such as messages you send us for support or feedback.
- Cookies and similar tracking technologies, as described in Section 5.

2. How We Use Your Information

We use the information we collect only for the following purposes:

- To create and maintain your account and provide the Service.
- To communicate with you about your account, updates, or support requests.
- To improve, secure, and personalize the Service.
- To detect, prevent, and address technical issues, fraud, or abuse.
- To comply with applicable laws, regulations, and legal obligations.

3. No Sharing or Selling of Your Information

We do not sell your personal information. We do not share your name, email address, phone number, or any other personal information with partners, affiliates, or associated companies for their marketing or commercial use.

We may disclose limited information only in the following narrow circumstances:

- With service providers who perform functions on our behalf (e.g., hosting or infrastructure providers), and who are contractually required to protect your information and use it solely to provide services to us — never for their own purposes.
- If required by law, subpoena, or other legal process, or to protect the rights, property, or safety of our users or the public.
- In connection with a merger, acquisition, or sale of assets, in which case we will notify you before your information becomes subject to a different privacy policy.
- With your explicit, informed consent for a specific, disclosed purpose.

Outside of these limited circumstances, your personal information stays with us and is never provided to outside companies for their own advertising, marketing, or resale purposes.

4. Data Storage and Security

We implement reasonable administrative, technical, and physical safeguards designed to protect your information from unauthorized access, disclosure, alteration, or destruction. However, no method of transmission or storage is 100% secure, and we cannot guarantee absolute security.

We retain your personal information only for as long as necessary to provide the Service and fulfill the purposes described in this policy, unless a longer retention period is required by law.

5. Cookies and Tracking Technologies

We may use cookies and similar technologies to keep you signed in, remember your preferences, and understand how the Service is used. You can control cookies through your browser settings; disabling cookies may limit some features of the Service. We do not use cookies to share your personal information with third parties for advertising purposes.

6. Your Rights and Choices

Depending on your location, you may have the right to:

- Access the personal information we hold about you.
- Correct or update inaccurate information.
- Request deletion of your personal information.
- Object to or restrict certain processing of your information.
- Withdraw consent where processing is based on consent.

To exercise any of these rights, contact us using the information in Section 10.

7. Children's Privacy

The Service is not directed to children under the age of 13 (or the applicable age of digital consent in your jurisdiction), and we do not knowingly collect personal information from children. If we learn that we have collected such information, we will delete it promptly.

8. International Users

If you access the Service from outside United States, your information will be processed in United States. We take steps to ensure your information receives an adequate level of protection wherever it is processed.

9. Changes to This Privacy Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time. If we make material changes, we will notify you by updating the “Effective Date” at the top of this policy and, where appropriate, through additional notice such as an email or in-app notification.
